

The Work-Based Learning Spectrum: Building Capacity

Rita O'Brien and Dale Hanson
Appleton Area School District
November 8, 2014

Graphic Organizer

Success in the New Economy (video)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Why do you believe a paradigm shift for schools is needed?</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What specific changes resonate with you in relationship to college attendance and changing workforce needs?</li> </ul>

Notes:

Work-Based Learning Taskforce (WBL)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What are three goals of the Work-Based Learning Taskforce?</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What steps that were taken could be replicated in your district?</li> </ul>

Notes:

Thinking about my district - (tying this together for me):	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Do we have an accurate assessment of our district's culture related to embracing WBL? If so – is it positive, or negative? What data supports your assessment?</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Where can I obtain accurate information to support my local WBL efforts?</li> </ul>
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• What are my first steps to start or improve our district's Work Based Learning capacity?</li> </ul>

Notes: